

SA-7018 Wireless Remote Controller

Feature

1. The IP network broadcast intercom system can be remotely controlled and operated by the combination of wireless remote controller and wireless IP controller, which needs to be configured by IP wireless remote control software.
2. Use RS232 serial port cable for data conversion, connect IP terminal or server serial port for use, remote control distance up to 1 km.